Note that this course uses inclusive access, which means that books are purchased by the student when they pay tuition. The book is an ebook that the students will access through Brightspace once the course begins. The student can also opt-out of this service, but will need to do that on their own before a specified deadline set between the bookstore and the business office.

MCC Bookstore Website: <http://www.mclennan.edu/bookstore/>

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Lectures, objective quizzes and exams, online class discussions via discussion boards, written reports, reflections, alternative assignments.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Recognize, describe, and quantitatively evaluate earth systems, including the land, water, sea, and atmosphere, and how these function as interconnected ecological systems.
2. Assess environmental challenges facing humans caused by their interaction with the physical and biological environment (e.g., population growth, energy resources, food production, pollution, water and resource use).
3. Acquire a scientific vocabulary and critical thinking skills related to environmental science.
4. Assess the effectiveness and feasibility of environmental policy and its impact.

Other specific Student Learning Outcomes and Core Objectives include:

- A. Critical thinking assignments that focus on scientific knowledge related to problems involving energy and the environment;
- B. Assessing communication skills through quizzes and assignments that are largely written, while lectures gravitate toward visual components, and class discussions guarantee students' oral interactions when introducing the physical sciences at a collegiate level;
- C. Empirical/quantitative assessments through lectures that allow students to see examples of specific case studies, research, and current events that pertain to data collection, analysis, and the scientific method as they pertain to energy problems and solutions; among other environmental topics like sustainability and resource management.

Course Outline or Schedule:

The official class schedule is posted and updated on Brightspace, as adjustments become needed. At times, students may be allowed to work ahead in the course (if they choose), but the instructor is not required to make future assignments available before an assignment's scheduled time. If additional sections are opened, the additional sections' due dates will be posted in the same location as the additional sections' tabs. A student may ALWAYS complete available assignments early (when they are available), but will not be able to receive credit on any assignments submitted past an assignment's specified deadline.

Course Grading Information:

Exams: 30% (a Midterm and Final Exam)

Quizzes: 45% (11 quizzes, lowest grade dropped)

Discussion, Chapter Questions, Other Assignments: 25%

The grade scale used in this course is: A = 90 – 100%; B = 80 – 89%; C = 70 – 79%; D = 60 – 69%; F = ≤59%. Grades are kept on Brightspace under Grades tool, on the main menu.

Quizzes: There will be a total of 11 quizzes during this session, the lowest of which will be dropped at the end of the semester. There are no time limits on quizzes; but, be sure that they are completed by 11:55pm on the specified nights when they are due. In the event of essay and short-answer questions, simply repeating two or three words from the notes will not suffice—I want to know that you grasp the concepts we discuss in my class. You are permitted to use your notes on all quizzes. I allow you the opportunity to attempt each quiz twice. Once finished, the quiz will not show you the correct answers; instead, you must reevaluate and find the correct answers on your own before you retaking the quiz again. The objective of these quizzes is to encourage critical thinking and provide students with the opportunity to take the material to heart—not simply memorize it for a few hours. If you retest and score lower on your second attempt, the higher of the two grades will be the grade automatically recorded and used by Brightspace. I believe that two opportunities to take a quiz (with your notes) should provide anyone (who does the required work) with the means to ace every quiz in the course. However, because of the fact you can use your notes and may retake a quiz:

THERE ARE NO RESETS OR REOPENING OF QUIZZES UNLESS YOU HAVE AN EXCUSED ABSENCE.

Typically, when students used to ask me to reset a quiz, it was because of a computer error. Because of this fact, keep in mind these tips:

1. If the computer freezes on your first quiz attempt, you need to change computers before beginning your second attempt. I understand that technology does not always work properly but you should have a backup plan for when/if that technology fails you for the second attempt.
2. I highly recommend using the MCC library computers for quizzes, because they often prove the most dependable in an online testing environment. If you only have access to one computer, you need to designate an alternative computer, as soon as possible, to use as a backup before beginning to take quizzes in this course.
3. You will receive a zero when you do not record a quiz grade by the specified time.
4. A quiz listed as “In Progress” at/after the deadline will result in a grade of zero for that quiz.
5. With regards to last-minute assignments please remember the old adage: Failure to plan on your part does not constitute an emergency on my part.
6. If/When Brightspace goes down during a crucial time, issues will be dealt with when Brightspace comes back online. Due dates may be adjusted to reflect any changes.

Exams: With regards to the two exams: each student is required to complete two proctored exams during this course—a Midterm and a comprehensive Final. During the scheduled exam periods, students will have no other assignments due in this lecture course because I consider the exams to be the primary assignments. You may complete quizzes in advance, just be sure that you still complete the exams on their scheduled dates.

In order to comply with the aspect of a proctored exam, you will be required to test with Respondus Monitor, which also requires the use of a computer with a webcam and a microphone. Students are required to test in an environment with a strong internet connection – a slow internet connection may result in Respondus not recording properly. Students are also required to record a 30+ second environment video of their surroundings using Respondus before starting their exam. The environment video should show the entire testing area, including the area behind the computer, to demonstrate that there are no materials or other people in the testing environment. Throughout the exam, students faces must be in view of the camera and students must be in a well-lit environment with the webcam and microphone on for the duration of the exam. Hoodies with hoods or hats are not permitted to be worn during exams. If students do not record a proper environment video, respondus fails to record due to poor internet connection, other people are in the testing area or the student is not clearly visible during the entirety of the exam due to hats, poor lighting, or leaving the testing area, students may lose points from their exam, receive a zero, or be required to take a makeup exam with the instructor or in the testing center. Students are not permitted to use notes, their book, phones, the internet, or any other external resources on their exams. Use of external resources on the Midterm or Final exam is considered cheating.

The Midterm Exam will be less than thirty, randomly selected multiple-choice and 3-4 short-answer questions that originate from all lectures given prior to the scheduled time of the Midterm. The Final Exam will consist of less than thirty, randomly selected multiple-choice questions and 3-4 short answer questions that originate from lectures 31 - 40. The Midterm Exam is worth 15% of your final average and the Final Exam is worth 15% of your final average. You are only allowed to attempt the Midterm Exam and Final Exam once—neither exam may be retaken for a higher grade. The time limits for the midterm and final exams are 2.5 hours.

For both exams, there will be primary content folder tabs available on the main menu for Brightspace that include the exam portal, directions on arranging/taking the exam, and materials that you might need to review before beginning the exam. The due dates for both exams are posted under the Syllabus/Schedule section in Brightspace. I realize that you took an online class for a reason, but please understand that I am also requiring a proctored Midterm and Final Exam for a reason. The MCC Testing Center only allows students with established ADA accommodations—all other testing is done fully online. The MCC Testing Center may also elect to test via online tools, as well.

Discussion Board and Chapter Questions: Students will be required to complete various activities and engage in a total of 1 discussion via the Brightspace Discussion board. Rubrics and instructions for discussion boards are located in Brightspace.

Students will also be required to complete chapter reflection questions at the end of each chapter. These questions are located in TopHat and students will be required to complete the questions by the due date for each chapter. The short answer questions on the Midterm and Final exam will be randomly selected from the chapter questions. End of chapter questions will count for a grade and will be uploaded in Brightspace at the end of the course session.

Environmental Justice Project: Students will consider an environmental justice case study of their choosing from multiple perspectives. The project will be completed independently by the student and will be presented in a flier format. Grading rubrics and detailed instructions are located in Brightspace.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

I do not accept late work because students will have plenty of time to properly complete the various required assignments and all assignments will be completed online. The lowest quiz grade will be dropped.

If a student becomes incapacitated during the course of the semester and is unable to complete their work, please communicate with me so we can make alternative arrangements.

MCC Attendance Policy:

Regular and punctual attendance is expected of all students, and the instructor will maintain a complete record of attendance for the entire length of each course, including online and hybrid courses. Students will be counted absent from class meetings missed, beginning with the first official day of classes. Students, whether present or absent, are responsible for all material presented or assigned for a course and will be held accountable for such materials in the determination of course grades. Any student caught sleeping during lecture may be marked absent or dismissed from class.

In the case of online and hybrid courses, attendance will be determined in terms of participation, as described in the course syllabus. In this course, a student is marked absent when she/he fails to complete that section's assignment(s). Absence from 25 percent of scheduled lecture and/or laboratory meetings will be taken as evidence that a student does not intend to complete the course, and the student will be withdrawn from the course with a grade of W. The instructor may reinstate the student if satisfied that the student will resume regular attendance and will complete the course. If the student's 25 percent absences are reached after the official drop date, the instructor may assign a W, if the student is passing and requests to be withdrawn. However, if a student who is not passing reaches the 25 percent point after the official drop date, the student will receive an F. In extenuating circumstances, the instructor may assign a W to a student who is not passing. Each absence will count toward attendance requirements in each course. Students will be permitted to make up class work and assignments missed due to absences caused by (1) authorized participation in official College functions, (2) personal illness, (3) an illness or a death in the immediate family or (4) the observance of a religious holy day. Also, the instructor has the prerogative of determining whether a student may make up work missed due to absences for other reasons. It is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor of the reason for an absence and to do so in a timely fashion. McLennan Community College shall excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities including examinations for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. Students are required to file a written request with each instructor for an excused absence. A student whose absence is excused for this observance may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

Preferred/Chosen Names and Pronouns for Students:

The instructor values the importance of calling students by their preferred/chosen names and pronouns. If students would like to submit this information, students may do so by either completing the form at <https://www.mclennan.edu/admissions/docs/Student-Admission-Change-Form-2022.pdf> or by going to Self Service and selecting User Options, User profile, and Edit Personal Identity.

The instructor strives for accuracy in referring to students by their preferred/chosen name and pronouns in class and requests that notification is provided to the Instructor by email so the instructor is aware of the change and can begin using the preferred/chosen name and pronouns. For changes that occur in the course of the semester, the instructor asks for grace for inadvertently calling a student by the wrong name or pronouns. Should this occur, please respectfully correct the instructor.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the educational opportunity.

Any student who is found guilty of academic dishonesty such as cheating, plagiarism, or collusion on any problem on an assignment, quiz, test, (etc.) will receive zero for the activity in which the offense occurred and will be reported to the office of Student Development. Plagiarism may include the use of ideas, research, or sentence structure without giving proper credit to the creator.

INSTRUCTOR NOTE:**

THERE IS ZERO TOLERANCE FOR CHEATING, COLLUSION, AND/OR PLAGIARISM ON ANY TYPE OF ASSIGNMENT IN THIS COURSE.

If a student is unsure as to what constitutes cheating/plagiarism, he/she needs to ask for clarification before submitting an assignment. When applicable, it is a student's obligation to verify the authenticity of his/her work through proper citations. Unless expressly stated otherwise in the assignment instructions, all assignments are to be completed independently and should reflect one's own work. Working with other students or other individuals on an assignment without instructor permission is considered collusion and cheating.

On occasion, two students in this course may share a common bond such as sharing a living space or being involved in the same collegiate or other organizational entity enroll in the same course. Students who share a common bond need to be sure their assignment work is clearly their own. It is recommended that students discuss their situation with the instructor at the beginning of the course about this issue and identify that they have a common bond.

INSTRUCTOR NOTE:**

Deviation from any of the aforementioned course policies, will result in the following penalties:

1st Offense: Written warning from the instructor, a zero grade issued for the activity in which the offense occurred, and a report made to Student Discipline

2nd Offense: Report made to Student Discipline and will receive a failing grade in the course.
