HISTORY OF AMERICAN MUSIC

MUSI 1310 87

Jonathan Kutz

NOTE: This is a 6 Week Summer course.

Course Description:

A survey of the evolution of jazz, blues, latin, country and rock styles, contributions of important performers, and musical techniques involved in the creation and performance of blues based music. This course will introduce students to the History of American Music (The trail of the Blues), as it evolved in the United States and spread throughout the world. In addition to the historical perspective, internet discussion boards will focus on aesthetic and sociological issues that have influenced the various developments within the genre. Mr. Kutz will share his own personal experience as a musician and try to convey the artistic sensibility that is inherent in all artists and styles.

Prerequisites and/or Corequisites:

None

Course Notes and Instructor Recommendations:

I strongly urge students to buy the course packet or download it in the course and fill in the study guides as you watch a video. It's an easy way to get a great grade in the class.

Office/Teacher Conference Hours: Please email for an appointment. Hours vary by semester.

Other Instruction Information:

Required Text & Materials:

Course outline packet is available at the bookstore ($6) or can be printed off at home. Access to Netflix, Dropbox and Youtube.

MCC Bookstore Website: <http://www.mclennan.edu/bookstore/>

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Video Lectures with quizzes, Discussion Boards

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

This course will provide the student an opportunity to;

- become familiar with the sound of the many variants that are grouped under the heading "rock and roll", focusing primarily on American & British performers in the categories of Jazz, Blues, Country, R&B, Gospel, Rock 'n Roll, Contemporary Christian, Latin and Rap.
- develop the ability to "LISTEN, "not just hear" when participating in the musical experience.
- acquire a musical vocabulary that will enable concise, intellectual discussion about any music.
- gain experience in communicating with others about music, clearly expressing one's own opinions and beliefs.
- learn about individuals integral to the evolution of rock music (e.g., composers, performers, etc.), circumstances surrounding their lives, and style elements common to the various sub-genres.
- gain a historical perspective including listening to and discussing primary musical, social, and aesthetic influences on the emergence & development of rock music.
- apply newly-acquired knowledge about music to unfamiliar contexts.
- identify musical examples from repertoire covered in this course to illustrate the various concepts presented and discussed in class.
- gain a clearer understanding of one's own current musical preferences and the basis for this selection.
- accept the dynamic nature of musical style, realizing that music of tomorrow may require a re-thinking & reformulation of concepts, beliefs, and preferences held today.
- stimulate an appreciation for popular music as a relevant art form within contemporary society and realize the influence that music plays in influencing and shaping society.

Course Outline or Schedule:

The course in a nutshell:

- No book, no reading!
- Watch a video, fill out a study guide and take a quiz.
- Use Youtube to find videos of artists for our discussion boards.
- Remember that a 5 week summer term is actually 15 weeks crammed into 5 weeks. It's busy! Please allow yourself at least 8-10 hours per week to get work done for this class.
- You will need to download Dropbox and you need access to Netflix (free one month subscription)
- ~~You can either buy or stream the main documentary series: SoundBreaking and Sonic Highways.~~ (These are currently embedded in the course shell.)
- All other documentaries are on Youtube.

Course Schedule

Week 1- Units 1, 2, 3

Week 2- Units 4 ,5, 6

Week 3-Units 7, midterm covers (units 1-7), 8, 9

Week 4- Units 10, 11, 12

Week 5- Units 13, 14 and Final (Covers units 8-14)

The due dates for all work are due on a Weekly basis. We begin on a Tuesday and end the week at Monday midnight. Discussion Board (DB) main responses are due by midnight Friday. Two quizzes per week are due by midnight Monday as well as 3 DB responses for each DB. I allow for quiz make-ups but remain firm on due dates for all DB posts.

VIDEO LECTURES- (50% of your grade) These documentaries are located in various places: You can stream or purchase some from Amazon, view others on Youtube, Netflix or Dropbox. You are to view each program and then fill out the outline. We will cover 2 units per week in this 8 week course. These will cover the entire spectrum of American Music. There is a documentary on Jazz, a 4 part series on Country Music, a two part series on the Blues, a two part series on Latin Music. SoundBreaking is a 10 part documentary series made by PBS. Sonic Highways is an 8 part series made by rock musician Dave Grohl. We will watch a 4 part series on Netflix called Rap Evolution. Also included are overviews of decades from the 50's through the 90's. There is overlap of alot of the material, but that will help you see what is important and reinforce what happened in each decade.

Warning: In the Hip Hop Evolution series and Sonic Highways series there is some curse language being used by our rock and rap pioneer friends. My apologies, but the depth and scope of these series makes up for those who are using the "King's English." If this is offensive to you and you feel that you are forced to listen to this and want to complain, please consider dropping the course. (This is no worse than your average cable channel or Hollywood movie.)

These are imbedded in the course, no need to stream...

SoundBreaking Link to Buy or Stream (The series is available for around $21.) Streaming episodes are $3, we will watch 7 episodes= $21.

Sonic Highways Link to buy or stream (There are used copies of the series for less than $6. Streaming episodes are $3, we will watch 7 episodes.

Netflix offers the first month free so you should be able to get by with that if you don't already have the service. We will watch Hip Hop Evolution (all 4 episodes) during the last two weeks of the semester.

All other video lectures will be on Youtube. These links are available throughout the course!

DISCUSSION BOARDS- (30% of your grade) You are required to participate in the weekly Discussion Boards (DB) that will focus on relevant topics of the week. There is two DB per week in the fall and spring semesters and 3 DB's per week in the summer terms. You are required to make a 200-300 word post and then read other classmates posts and respond to 3 of them. Short generic posts that appear rushed will not be counted. I read them all and try to respond to them. I consider this part of the course very important because you will form opinions about subject matter and get to know the famous performers of each musical decade. DB's must be completed on a weekly basis. Completing all DB's late (after a week is over) or on the last class day is not allowed. I will grade DB posts and there will be a grade in the grade book for them along with teacher comments.

Feel free to post earlier with main posts and responses, dates given are the latest acceptable dates and times. The earlier you and others post, the easier it becomes for all of us. Feel free to do more, your effort will be recognized at the end of the term!

The rules for posting; Make a main response by midnight Friday and make a total of 3 responses to other student posts the last 3 days of the week. To be clear, that is 4 total posts per assignment. (8 week courses will have two DB's per week.) (In the summer terms there are 3 DB's per week and the due date varies, depending on which day of the week the term begins.) This will help make the DB a discussion and not just responses at the last minute. DB's are due by 11:59pm the last day of the week. Also, there is a word minimum and maximum so students don't write too much or too little. The requirement is 200-300 words per main post. Responses should be at least 100 words, so pick responses that inspire you to write!

Course Grading Information:

---Video Lecture quizzes may be taken two times and =50% of your grade.

---Discussion Board posts are graded and= 30% of your grade.

---Midterm exam covers about 14 video lectures and can be taken only once= 10% of your grade

----Final exam cover about 14 video lectures and can be taken only once= 10% of your grade.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

I allow make ups for all quizzes as follows:

---Quizzes for unit's 1-7 can be taken or made up until the midterm period is over, then unit's 1-7 are turned off.

---Quizzes for unit's 8-14 can be made up until the class is over.

I DON'T EXCEPT LATE DISCUSSION BOARDS. These must be done during the week that it is due.

Sometimes life gets in the way of a semester, please notify all of your professors of life changing events and let us try to accommodate your needs as best we can. If a grade of incomplete is given, you have a semester to get it made up.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Since we don't meet face to face, most of our interactions are done on the Discussion Board. Please be respectful of others when responding to discussion board postings. I will not tolerate foul language or disrespectful remarks. Everyone is entitled to an opinion and we can learn from everyone. This class should be a "labor of love" if you love music. Please treat others with respect. I can and will remove any DB posts that are offensive in any matter. If there is a situation with another student please contact me ASAP so it can be resolved.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails. For more information about your student email account, go to www.mclennan.edu/studentemail.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

You can find help on the McLennan website about connecting your McLennan email account to your mobile device:

- Email Setup for iPhones and iPads
- Email Setup for Androids

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

For more helpful information about technology at MCC, go to MCC's Tech Support Cheat Sheet or email helpdesk@mclennan.edu.
