DYNAMICS OF GROUP COUNSELING

DAAC 2354 B001

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

As a blended course, the primary methods of learning and teaching include a combination of online lectures and discussions, along with in-class group work and videos. Participation in both online and in-class discussions, including review of textbook material, will be an integral part of the learning process. In addition to your textbook, learning materials will be delivered online via Brightspace. You will have a weekly reading assignment presented as a slideshow in PDF format. You will also complete a Discussion assignment and take an online quiz for each reading before you attend class. You will also complete two projects related to group leadership. There are three exams, including the final.

The amount of time you spend with the material and the interactions you have with it dramatically affect your ability to remember it. You will need to allow regular time each week to read the assigned material and complete the online assignments before coming to class. You are encouraged to log in to Brightspace on a regular (if not daily) basis; helpful announcements, reminders, and supplemental information will be posted there regularly. A high level of self-discipline is needed for successful completion of this course.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the semester, you will be able to:

1. Identify issues of confidentiality and ethics and how this applies to the group process.
2. Describe group leadership styles and demonstrate group management skills.
3. Define and describe the basic stages of the group process.
4. Provide appropriate client progress documentation and record keeping skills.

You will achieve these outcomes through discussions of the course content and hands-on experience in group techniques and dynamics.

COMPETENCIES

By the end of the semester, you will be able to:

1. Identify ethical issues (including confidentiality) as they apply to the group process.
2. Describe group leadership styles.
3. Demonstrate group management skills.
4. Define and use terminology related to the group process.
5. Differentiate among types of groups.
6. Describe the stages of the group life cycle.
7. Design a group for a specific population.

DYNAMICS OF GROUP COUNSELING

DAAC 2354 B001

8. Demonstrate activities to use in a group for a specific population.

Course Attendance/Participation Guidelines:

If a student is not in attendance in accordance with the policies/guidelines of the class as outlined in the course syllabus as of the course census date, faculty are required to drop students from their class roster prior to certifying the respective class roster. A student's financial aid will be re-evaluated accordingly and the student will only receive funding for those courses attended as of the course census date.

This class has one weekly synchronous meeting and weekly online assignments. Attendance is taken for both synchronous meetings and online assignments.

- A student is present if they are physically present in the synchronous meeting: either in the classroom or on Zoom (depending on the course format).
- A student is absent if they fail to complete any of the online assignments in a learning unit/module.
- A student is dropped from the class if they are absent from every meeting and online assignments prior to the Census Date.
- A student is withdrawn from the class once they accumulate eight (8) total absences prior to the 60% date of the semester.
- A student may also request to be withdrawn with a grade of W before the 60% point of the semester.
- After the 60% point of the semester, a student may request to be withdrawn if the student is passing, or be assigned the final grade earned at the end of the semester after grades have been updated to reflect missing work.

Once a student exceeds the maximum number of absences in this course, they will be withdrawn from the course. If they have previously been withdrawn from 6 courses, they must remain on the roster for this course. However, any assignments submitted or completed after exceeding the absence limit will not be accepted and the student will receive a failing grade for the course.

Course Grading Information:

Your grade in this course will be determined by a combination of:

- 3 exams – 45% of your grade
- projects: two group activities projects and 1 icebreaker leadership – 25% of your grade
- the average of your weekly online quizzes – 15% of your grade
- the average of your weekly online discussions – 15% of your grade

1. EXAMS Use of A.I. in any way is entirely prohibited.

Three online exams will be given and will be 100 points each. Each exam will be 15% of your grade. Exams will cover material from the online slideshows and from the textbook (even if it was not covered in the slideshow). Each test will be a mixture of objective, short-answer and discussion questions. Exams will be timed, and you may only attempt each exam once. Exams are not open book or open notes; they are meant to be taken without assistance. EXAMS MUST BE COMPLETED BY THE DEADLINE. (In RARE instances, you may be allowed to take a make-up exam. See Make-Up Test Policy below.)

IMPORTANT: If you miss an exam and have not contacted me within 1 day of the exam due date, a “0” is assigned as the permanent grade. There is no penalty for taking the exam EARLY should you have a situation arise.

2. ACTIVITIES PROJECT

A.I. may be used to generate sources or organize your work, but it may NOT be used to write your assignment, nor is it considered a source itself.

You will research the use of group techniques with the following populations: pre-schoolers, children, adolescents, adults, and the elderly. You will identify activities appropriate for those populations, summarize each activity, and build a resource packet using the activities. A handout explaining this project is in the “Assignments” area under the “Assessments” link at the top of the course. To receive the full point value, ten separate activities (two for each population) must be processed. Fewer activities will earn reduced points. Each activity is worth 10 points, so with all ten activities, the project is worth 100 points and is 20% of your grade.

3. GROUP LEADERSHIP ICEBREAKER ACTIVITY

A.I. may be used to generate sources.

Practicing group techniques is an integral part of this course. You can learn these techniques both as a group leader and as a group member. You will lead a group icebreaker during one class meeting (more information on this can be found in the “Assignments” area). You are also expected to participate in your classmates’ icebreaker activities as a group member. Up to 50 points are available for this assignment, and it is 5% of your grade.

Attendance will obviously affect your level of participation in our groups, because if you are not in class, you cannot contribute to group exercises. Absences can also contribute to lower cohesion in our group. Regular attendance is expected, both online and in person.

4. WEEKLY DISCUSSIONS

Use of A.I. in any way is entirely prohibited.

As mentioned above, attendance and participation each week is crucial in our course in order to help foster our group cohesion. One way weekly participation is earned is by answering the assigned Discussion question and commenting on classmates’ posts by the deadline. Each of the weekly Discussions is worth up to 100 points, and the average of all Discussions will count toward your overall grade. The lowest Discussion grade will be dropped automatically. The Discussion average is 15% of your grade.

DYNAMICS OF GROUP COUNSELING

DAAC 2354 B001

For each module you will reply to the question and reply to two of your classmates’ posts. In order to receive full credit for Discussion responses, they need to be well thought-out posts; posts with just a few words don’t count as a “discussion.” Similarly, posts made all in one day do not amount to a “discussion,” since students who do this rarely log back in to see the comments their post generated. Posting the same (or very similar) comment on classmates’ posts also does not add to the discussion. Therefore, please adhere to the following guidelines in order to maximize your Discussion points:

	Full Credit
Number of Posts	3 posts over 2 or more days 30 points	3 posts all in 1 day 20 points	2 posts 10 points	1 post 5 points
Length of Posts	All posts are developed paragraphs 30 points	1 post is too short 20 points	2 posts are too short 10 points	All 3 posts are too short 5 points
Accuracy and Thoughtfulness of Posts (posts contribute new ideas to the discussion)	All posts are thoughtful and accurate 30 points	1 post either contains inaccurate information or does not contribute to the discussion 20 points	2 posts either contain inaccurate information or do not contribute to the discussion 10 points	All 3 posts either contain inaccurate information or do not contribute to the discussion 5 points
Spelling/Grammar	Posts are generally free of errors 10 points	Posts contain a few minor errors 7 points	Posts contain multiple errors 4 points	Posts contain significant errors 0 points

Students who do not post anything for the week will receive a 0 for the week. Remember that appropriate online etiquette is required at all times; this information is posted in the “Getting Started” area of the course.

ALL POSTS ARE DUE BY 9PM THE NIGHT BEFORE OUR CLASS MEETING, BUT I ENCOURAGE YOU TO POST EARLIER TO EARN MORE POINTS AND INCREASE CLASS DISCUSSION.

5. QUIZZESUse of A.I. in any way is entirely prohibited.

A quiz is required each week over the topic(s) presented. If you read the chapter and/or slideshow and take effective notes, you should be well prepared for the quizzes. Each of the weekly quizzes is worth 100 points, and the average of all quizzes will count toward your overall grade. The lowest quiz will be dropped automatically. The Quiz average is 15% of your grade.

IMPORTANT: The purpose of the quizzes is to ensure you understand the main concepts of each module. The better job you do on the quizzes, the more likely you will do well on the exams, but not everything on the exams will be on a quiz. Short answer and essay questions should always be in your own words and not “copy/pasted” from the course materials. You will not receive credit for answers that are:

a. incomplete or the answer is too brief (i.e., one word for instructions to “discuss”)

b. answers are cut and pasted instead of in your own words

Quizzes are due by 9pm the night before our class meeting. You can attempt each weekly quiz once, and there is a time limit, so be sure you have thoroughly prepared before beginning the quiz. Feedback on each quiz is provided for you in the “Quizzes” section under the “Assessment” link; click on the arrow to the right of the quiz and click “submissions” to see your feedback. This is a crucial tool to help you understand what you may have missed and therefore perform better on the exams.

WEEKLY DISCUSSIONS AND QUIZZES CANNOT BE MADE UP UNLESS THERE IS A DOCUMENTED EXCUSE THAT PREVENTED YOU FROM COMPLETING THEM THAT WEEK. (I.E., getting sick on the due date will not excuse work that you had the entire week to complete).**

Grade Range is as follows:

Letter Grade	A	B	C	D	F
	90-100%	80-89%	70-79%	60-69%	59% or less

A grade of C is required for graduation.

Late Work and Make Up Work Policies:

The late work policy does NOT extend to weekly assignments, only to exams and major assignments.

Late Work: Deadlines for exams and assignments are given at the beginning of the semester; therefore, late work is rarely accepted and must be accompanied by a documented reason for the lateness. I encourage you to work ahead of deadlines and not wait until the last minute to turn in work. If late work is accepted, it will automatically lose points according to the chart below. I will not accept late work that is more than 1 week past the original deadline for any reason.

DYNAMICS OF GROUP COUNSELING

DAAC 2354 B001

Less than 24 hours late	5 points deducted
24 - 48 hours late	10 points deducted
3 - 4 days late	15 points deducted
5 - 6 days late	20 points deducted
Up to 7 days late	25 points deducted
After 7 days late	Assignment not accepted

PLEASE NOTE: You should not wait until the last minute to complete assignments, quizzes or tests. I may not be able to reset tests unless on campus, so if you are in doubt, all work should be completed during the week and not on the weekend.

Assignments must be turned in according to the instructions for that assignment. I will not accept work that is emailed to me.

You will be permitted to make up class work and assignments missed due to absences caused by documented reasons including (1) authorized participation in official College functions, (2) personal illness, (3) an illness or a death in the immediate family or (4) the observance of a religious holy day. Also, I have the prerogative of determining whether you may make up work missed due to absences for other reasons. It is your responsibility to inform me of the reason for an absence and to do so in a timely fashion (immediately before or after the absence). This may be done with a phone call, email or in person.

Make-Up Test Policy: You are expected to complete all tests at the time designated by the class calendar. Should it be necessary to miss a test, there will be an automatic deduction of 15 points. Make-up tests are to be completed within one week of the regularly-scheduled test. If the test is not taken within the first week after the original test, the grade for the test will become a zero. You will only be allowed to make up one test per course for each semester.

As the professor, I retain the right to determine if the reason for an absence justifies not deducting points. This would only be for unusual circumstances (wreck, hospitalization, etc.).

Please Note: It is ALWAYS better to have a low test grade than to have a zero!

Attendance Policy (please also see the Course Attendance/Participation Guidelines on page 4): Regular and punctual attendance is expected of all students, and each instructor maintains a complete record of attendance for the entire length of each course, including online, blended, and hybrid courses. You will be counted absent from class meetings or online assignments missed, beginning with the first official day of classes. Whether present or absent, you are responsible for all material presented or assigned for a course and will be held accountable for such materials in the determination of course grades.

DYNAMICS OF GROUP COUNSELING

You are able to check your absence count by clicking on “Attendance” under the “Assessments” link. If you encounter a situation that makes it difficult for you to keep up your participation in the course, please reach out to me for assistance.

In very rare cases, a grade of Incomplete (“I”) may be given when a course is not completed because of a student's absence caused by reasons acceptable to the instructor. To be eligible, you must have essentially completed the course and only be missing the final few grades. If work is not made up within the following long semester, the "I" will be changed to an "F".

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

You are expected to demonstrate respect to others in the classroom (regardless of format) and to demonstrate professional behavior at all times. The classroom is an excellent place to practice behaviors that are expected to be used in the workplace with clients and coworkers. As the professor, I reserve the right to protect the learning environment for everyone in the class, including removing a student whose behavior interferes with a collaborative, professional, and respectful atmosphere.

Cheating is not tolerated. Any student who cheats will be subject to grade reduction, re-doing of assignments, and/or expulsion from the class. Examples of cheating include but are not limited to:

- copying the work of another student
- seeking excused absences/tardies under false pretense
- plagiarism
 - using Artificial Intelligence (A.I.) or any text-generating software (such as ChatGPT, iA Writer, Marmot, Botowski, etc.) is not permitted, and it will be treated as plagiarism
- turning in work you completed for a different class or the same class during a different semester

It is expected that the work you submit for this class is created solely for this class during this semester and not for another class. To write a paper, project, etc. and submit it for a grade in two different classes, even over different semesters, is highly unethical. Students caught doing this will receive a zero (0) for that assignment.

All work submitted in this course must be your own. Contributions from anyone or anything else must be properly quoted and cited every time they are used. Failure to do so constitutes an academic integrity violation, and the institution's policy will be followed in those instances.
